KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Bring your Destination Iowa State bag that you receive on Thursday to all events – it is your pass to enter events.
- Follow your assigned team schedule provided by your Cyclone Aide for locations and times to help promote physical distancing and manage group sizes.
- Some events will be hosted where students will be in indoor spaces at 50% capacity. Some students may wish to opt out of these programs. We will be making our events available to view online. Also, if students would like to connect with a Cyclone Aide please contact us at nsp@iastate.edu to set up a conversation. We welcome all students to the Cyclone Family.

STUDENT ACCESSIBILITY

Student Accessibility Services is located in 1076 Student Services Building or available by phone at 515 294-7220. Please call or stop by if you have any questions or need accommodations. If you have concerns about any part of Destination Iowa State, please reach out to the New Student Programs office at nsp@iastate.edu.

Note: A comprehensive planning effort has been launched to bring students back to campus for the fall semester, including in-person classes, reopening of residence halls, and an experience that is the hallmark of an Iowa State education. These plans will be supported with guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Iowa Department of Public Health, and the Iowa Board of Regents – with the safety of students, faculty, and staff as our highest priority. We'll provide updates as they become available, and you are also welcome to follow our progress at web.iastate.edu/safety/updates/covid19.
